john saul hellfire the pdf

John Saul's books have always been deliciously creepy with just the right amount of morbidity. Hellfire was no different. It was very interesting and I found it extremely difficult to put it down. The story of the old mill grasped my attention, and having a child be the antagonist was very intriguing as well. The ending was surely shocking, and although it wasn't a very happy one, it was amazing all the same.

John Saul has a very solid plot line dealing with a family business of hiding secrets, driving family members crazy and haunts from the past in the old mill that the Sturgess family owned. It was not the ending that I thought it would be. Hellfire is mixed with old town folklore, family secrets and legends of the town. I really enjoyed the book and would recommend it as a book worth reading.
