varies with the time and with the place, but the study of such procedures may profit from a knowledge of what happened in Norway. I have formed no conclusion as the political lessons to be drawn from the activities of Quisling. My self-allotted case has been to provide the reader, who may want them for his enlightenment, some new facts. And as to my collaborators, alas, no word of mine is ...

Charisma from below? The Quisling Case in Norway

PDF Abstract. Objective: After the Nazi occupation, there was a determination to deal with collaborators, coming to the fore with the trial of the traitor Vidkun Quisling. This became as much a contest between psychiatrists as a legal tussle. Norwegian psychiatrists supported the public opinion that collaborationists were mentally ill or intellectually handicapped, and this was evident in the ...
